An anime-style illustration of Mizushima Sayori from the game Doki Doki Literature Club. She is a young woman with short, dark brown hair and bangs, wearing dark-rimmed glasses and a grey t-shirt. She has a serious, slightly annoyed expression on her face. Her right hand is raised to her forehead, with her index finger pointing upwards. She is sprinkling a cloud of white salt particles from her hand. At the bottom of the frame, a small, red-haired boy with a wide, happy grin is looking up at her. He has his arms raised in the air. Three red hearts are floating around him. The background is a soft, out-of-focus grey and white.
